

Southern Accents

BEAUTIFUL HOMES, GRACIOUS LIVING, A SENSE OF PLACE

Bright Ideas, Pretty Rooms

53 pages of stylish renovations

WHERE TO STAY

Brazilian Court "The place to stay if you want to be in town and walk everywhere," says Tracy Smith of this boutique hotel. 301 Australian Ave., 561/655-7740, www.thebraziliancourt.com.

1. The Breakers "The old traditional hotel here," says Jorge Sanchez. "You get the old Palm Beach and the new Palm Beach all mixed into one. You can't go wrong at The Breakers." 1 South County Rd., 888/273-2537, www.thebreakers.com.

The Chesterfield "This small hotel is popular and very nice," says Sanchez. Plus, it's two blocks from Worth Avenue, and its Leopard Lounge is a favorite watering hole. 363 Coconaut Row, 561/659-5800, www.chesterfieldpb.com.

Four Seasons Resort Palm Beach Beachfront views and the Four Seasons' trademark service, but a bit of a drive from town. 2800 South Ocean Blvd., 561/582-2800, www.fourseasons.com/palmbeach.

WHERE TO EAT

Amici Italian cuisine, but best known as a Palm Beach scene. 375 South County Rd., 561/832-0201, www.amicipalmbeach.com.

Belle & Maxwell's "A must while hitting the antiques shops along Dixie," says Amy Lagae. "Great sandwiches and salads." 3700 South Dixie Hwy., West Palm Beach, 561/832-4449.

Bice Stop by the bar for drinks after an afternoon of shopping. 313½ Worth Ave., 561/835-1600, www.bicepalmbeach.com.

Blue Provence "Specialty food items, such as caviar, cheeses and meats from France; fresh-baked pastries prepared on-site; and a large selection of kitchen wares, all inspired by the South of France," says Smith. 300 South County Rd., 561/651-1491, www.blueprovence.com.

OCEANFRONT VIEWS AND SWANK DINING OPTIONS ABOUND

Café Boulud "The wine list is a huge attribute, especially their choices of French wine, which I love," says Lagae. Located at The Brazilian Court, 301 Australian Ave., 561/655-6060, www.danielnyc.com.

C'est Si Bon "The answer to the working girl's empty tummy," laughs Huttig. "We hop in for prepared dinners, picnics, whatever." 280 Sun Ave., 561/659-6503, www.csbgourmet.com.

2. Chez Jean-Pierre "The restaurant we frequent the most," says Sanchez. "The r sels are one of my favorites, for my wife it's the steak an

Wed. 3:47 p.m.
Flip-flops or sandals?

Thurs. 10:16 a.m.
Play in the dunes or walk on the beach?

